Day 1:

- Morning: Arrival in Nairobi, Kenya's capital city. - Afternoon: Visit the Nairobi National Museum to explore Kenya's rich cultural heritage and history. Entry fee: USD 10. - Evening: Enjoy a traditional dinner at Carnivore Restaurant, known for its delicious African grilled meat. Budget-friendly option: http://www.carnivore.co.ke/. Hotel suggestion for Day 1 in Nairobi: - Hotel Troy Nairobi: Located in the city center, it offers comfortable rooms within your budget. Link to view: https://www.hoteltroy.com/.

Day 2:

- Morning: Depart for the Maasai Mara National Reserve, one of Africa's most famous wildlife reserves, via a budget-friendly morning bus. Bus fare: USD 20. - Afternoon: Arrive at the Maasai Mara and enjoy a thrilling game drive to spot the "Big Five" and other wildlife. Park entry fee: USD 30. - Evening: Experience Maasai culture with a visit to a traditional Maasai village. Interaction and dance performances are usually free, but a small donation is appreciated. Hotel suggestion for Day 2 near Maasai Mara: - Mara Leisure Camp: Offers affordable accommodation in tents with modern amenities. Link to view: https://maraleisurecamp.co.ke/.

Day 3:

- Morning: Embark on an early morning hot air balloon safari over the Maasai Mara for a unique aerial view of the wildlife and landscape. Cost: USD 450 (subject to availability and additional cost beyond the budget). - Afternoon: Visit Lake Nakuru National Park, known for its flamingos and diverse birdlife. Park entry fee: USD 30. - Evening: Depart for Nairobi and explore local markets for souvenirs and handicrafts. Budget-friendly option: Maasai Market at Globe Roundabout. Hotel suggestion for Day 3 in Nairobi: - Hotel Ambassadeur: Located near the city center, it offers budget-friendly accommodation with essential amenities. Link to view: http://www.ambassadeur.co.ke/. Please note that the hot air balloon safari is an optional activity that may exceed your budget. Be sure to inquire about availability, cost, and make a reservation in advance.